

COVID-19 Policies and Procedures

Message from the Director:

At Go Go Allegro School of Music, the health and safety of our students, families and teachers is our utmost priority. We do plan to resume in-person lessons for the Fall Session starting September 8, 2021 for families who wish to proceed with this option.

Virtual lessons will remain an option indefinitely.

Please keep in mind all faculty members will return to in-person lessons at their own discretion. Any student who wishes to return to in-person lessons (in-home or Weston studio) will be required to sign a COVID-19 waiver.

For Families Wishing to Return to In-Home Lessons Fall 2021

*Required to sign COVID-19 waiver

*If the student or instructor is ill, you will be required to hold your lesson virtually. Instructors will not teach any ill students, or attend lessons if anyone in the household is ill

*Instructors and students must wear face masks for the duration of the lesson for any instrument which does not use the mouth to play. For voice, brass and woodwind instruments, a minimum of 6 feet is required between student and teacher at all times

For Families Wishing to Return to Weston Studio Lessons Fall 2021

*Required to sign COVID-19 waiver

*If your student is ill, you will be instructed to hold your lesson virtually. Instructors will not teach any ill students, or attend lessons if anyone in the household is ill

*Instructor and students must wear face masks for the duration of the lesson

*Parents and siblings must remain in the car for the duration of the lesson (waiting room cannot be utilized at this time). Please do not arrive early for your lesson time. Please wait in your car until you receive a message notifying that you may enter
